Dear Community Member,

It is our firm belief that a strong community is a healthy one. There are a lot of factors that contribute to creating healthy communities. As the United States Surgeon General Dr. Vivek Murthy writes: “We know that health does not come from the doctor’s office alone. Health comes from where we live, learn, work, and play.”

Where we live, work, play, and go to school has a huge impact on our physical and mental health. When we live in communities and neighborhoods that prioritize a well-rounded approach to health and equity, we see outcomes and the quality of life for all members of our community improve. One way that we’re seeking to promote a healthier Cumberland, is by revamping this manual.

There are so many resources out there and it is my intention to make sure you are able to be connected to each and every one that you need. Services should be innovative, efficient, transparent, accessible, and empowering for all residents. The resources you find in here, all contribute improving overall wellbeing and security.

We hope that you will find this manual helpful and that you may pass the information in it along to others who may need it.

If you have any questions or need further assistance, please contact my Community Outreach Coordinator Sarah King. She can be reached at 401-728-2400 x132 or by email at sking@cumberlandri.org.

Thank you for all that you do to make this community what it is.

Sincerely,

Mayor Jeff Mutter
The Child Care Assistance Program (CCAP) can subsidize the cost of childcare for families that are residents of Rhode Island. CCAP is available for children who are US citizens or legal residents and under age 13. The age can be extended to 18 if the child has special needs.

Child Care Assistance is based on the following eligibility criteria:

- Low-income families who meet income guidelines and are working a minimum of 20 hours per week at or above Rhode Island’s minimum wage.
- Families participating in training, apprenticeship, internship, on-the-job training, work experience, work immersion sponsored by the Governor’s Workforce Board, who need childcare in order to take part in these job readiness/training opportunities.
- Families participating in the RI Works program.
- Pregnant/Parenting Teens participating in DHS’ Youth Success program.

Transitional Child Care is also available to families. This program allows for families already participating in the CCAP program to remain eligible for the subsidy program if their income increases and does not exceed 225% of the federal poverty level.

Families that qualify for the CCAP program can choose their own childcare provider. The CCAP program will reimburse authorized childcare providers up to a certain amount. Most eligible families share in the cost of care, called a co-payment, based on their income, family size and the number of children receiving childcare subsidies. This fee is paid directly to the childcare provider.

Parents can select the childcare provider of their choice and, if necessary, may use more than one provider to meet their childcare needs so long as the hours of care do not overlap. Options for childcare include:

- A DCYF licensed childcare center or before/after-school program
- A DCYF licensed family childcare home
- A license-exempt provider (relative) that has received approval from DHS

You can search licensed childcare providers through the Children’s Cabinet Website linked here. There you are able to filter by location, age group served, quality levels, financial assistance, and accreditations. BrightStars, are also available to help you find a CCAP child care provider. You can reach them by phone at (401) 739-6100 or 1-855-398-7605 or by email at info@BrightStars.org. Services are available in both English and Spanish.
If you are in immediate danger and need emergency assistance, call 911

HOTLINE RESOURCES

Statewide Victims of Crime Helpline: 1-800-494-8100

National Domestic Violence Hotline 1-800-799-7233 / TTY 1800-787-3224

The Rhode Island Coalition Against Domestic Violence (RICADV) has a network of member agencies that provide a wide array of services for victims, including emergency shelter, support groups, counseling services, and assistance with the legal system.

Full Member Agencies are organizations whose primary purpose is to end domestic violence and provide victim services.

The member agency of the RICADV that serves the Cumberland area is the Blackstone Valley Advocacy Center.

Blackstone Valley Advocacy Center Services:

Court Advocacy Program: The purpose of the Court Advocacy Program is to support and empower the victim, validate the victim's concerns, represent the victim's wishes, and promote the victim's access to services. Our advocate will assist the victim in the development of a safety plan and then support the decisions made through this plan.

If someone is charged by the police with committing a domestic violence crime against you, your court advocate will contact you to:

- Explain your rights as the victim of a crime;
- Explain the court process and what you can expect;
- Convey your wishes to the prosecutors.

However, court advocates are not attorneys, and they cannot provide legal advice or representation.

If you have questions about the court process, please call the court advocate at 723-3057.

The Law Enforcement Advocate (LEA) Program: is a partnership between Blackstone Valley Advocacy Center, Day One, Central Falls Police, Cumberland Police, Lincoln Police and Pawtucket Police. It provides immediate crisis intervention services to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault. All the services provided under this program are free.
How can the LEA Program help me?

- Explain your rights as a victim of a crime;
- Provide you with assistance and support throughout the criminal proceedings;
- Assist you in developing a safety plan and ensure you are given appropriate information and referrals;
- Accompany you during police statements, to court or to the local hospital;
- Supply you with an emergency cell phone if needed.

For more information about this program, you can contact the Cumberland Police Department 401-333-2500 or Blackstone Valley Advocacy Center 401-723-3057.

Support Groups: If you are interested in information about Blackstone Valley Advocacy Center’s support group or would like to join, call them at (401) 723-3057 or contact them by email at info@bvadvocacycenter.org.

Their domestic violence support groups are offered weekly to the community and are held in a confidential location. Both English and Spanish support groups are available which are free and confidential.

Family Care Community Partnership Project (FCCP Project): The FCCP Project is a partnership between the Blackstone Valley Advocacy Center, RI Coalition Against Domestic Violence, and the Family Care Community Partnerships (FCCP). Together, they are working together to help families and children touched by domestic violence. The purpose of the program is to keep all members of the family safe by providing crisis intervention, support, and referrals to appropriate services.

How will the program help me?

The FCCP Project is a valuable program that is designed to help families obtain resources and support in the community. Domestic violence advocates are working to help you and your children live free from violence.

Sojourner House Services

Safe House & Residential Housing

SAFE HOUSE (EMERGENCY SHELTER): Sojourner House offers inclusive emergency shelter for a variety of needs, including LGBTQ+, men’s services, families, and human trafficking survivors. Safe houses are in undisclosed locations and serve as immediate, safe, temporary housing for survivors and their children. Once there, staff provides information about domestic abuse, case management services, referrals, and educational programs.

Survivors and their children are provided with secure shelter and comprehensive services through Sojourner House’s network of local resources and service providers. For more information, contact the 24/7 helpline at 401-765-3232.
TRANSITIONAL HOUSING: Sojourner House offers a transitional housing program for individuals and families impacted by domestic and sexual abuse and human trafficking. Transitional housing is the bridge to self-sufficiency and permanent housing for clients. This is a short-term program with a typical duration of 6-24 months. For more information, contact the 24/7 helpline at 401-765-3232.

RAPID RE-HOUSING: Rapid Re-Housing is a rental assistance program that can pay a portion of a client’s rent for up to two years. Advocates work with victims to secure benefits and increase their income, that they may successfully maintain housing. Guidelines vary between programs. For more information, please contact 401-808-6889 or visit a Sojourner House Housing Clinic.

SHORT-TERM RENTAL ASSISTANCE: If you are unable to keep up with your rental payments due to abuse, you may be eligible for 1-3 months of rental assistance. Guidelines change frequently; please contact their housing office at (401) 808-6889 for more information. NOTE: This is a non-emergency number for housing assistance. If you are in immediate need, please call (401) 765-3232.

PERMANENT SUPPORTIVE HOUSING: Sojourner House offers permanent supportive housing to victims and their children. Permanent Supportive Housing provides victims with an apartment for as long as they need, and the rent is subsidized based on the client’s income.

Sojourner House works with victims regardless of immigration status. Guidelines vary between programs. If you are interested in permanent supportive housing, please call at (401) 808-6889 and register at www.waitlistcentralri.com and apply to “Sojourner House.”

You may also attend one of their housing clinics, which are held every Thursday from 9 am – 1 pm at the Pearl Street office at 304 Pearl Street, Suite 100, Providence, RI 02907.

Drop-In Services

Drop in Center: Sojourner House offers domestic and sexual violence and human trafficking support services in English and Spanish at their Drop-In Advocacy and Resource Center located at 386 Smith Street in Providence.

Services that are provided through the Drop-In Center include:

1. Meet with an advocate
2. Join a support group
3. Schedule a training or workshop at your organization
4. Meet with our Volunteer Coordinator
5. Get a free HIV test by oral swab
6. Deliver donations
7. Get information on how to help someone you think may be experiencing abuse
8. HOURS: Monday-Friday 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Se habla Español. For further information, call 401-861-6191.
Program Description:
Rhode Island’s Early Intervention Program promotes the growth and development of infants and toddlers who have a developmental disability or delay in one or more areas. Developmental disabilities or delays can affect a child’s speech, physical ability, or social skills. Children referred to the Early Intervention Program receive a comprehensive developmental evaluation to determine if they are eligible. One of the goals of Early Intervention is to provide support to families so their children can develop to their fullest potential. Services are provided in places where children usually play or take part in daily activities.

Eligibility
Children must be under age 3 and have a developmental disability or delay in one or more areas.

Cost
There is no cost to families to receive Early Intervention services. Children do not have to be eligible for RI Medicaid to receive services.

How to Apply
To apply, contact an Early Intervention Provider in Rhode Island. See the list below for Early Intervention Providers in Rhode Island.

Parents as Teachers Home Visiting Program (PAT)

Parents as Teachers is a free, voluntary, confidential service to expectant mothers and families with young children under the age of four. The program is a long term, evidence-based, family visiting program, made to increase parent knowledge of early childhood development and improve parenting practices. Parents as Teachers also provides early detection of developmental delays and health issues and increase school readiness and success.

Rhode Island Works

RIW Program is to encourage families to work and become self-sufficient, parents who work may still qualify for cash assistance and other help, including health care coverage, childcare subsidies, and SNAP.

DHS Social Caseworkers work with parents to develop an employment plan that outlines activities they must do to improve their success in the job market.

Children's Friend

Head Start

Head Start’s comprehensive child and family development services promote school readiness in low-income preschool children. Services include education, health, nutrition, social services, and other child and family supports. A number of options are available in order to meet the needs of families and children. Most children participate in a traditional center-based preschool classroom.

Who is eligible?

- Families living in Providence, Pawtucket, Central Falls, Cumberland, and Lincoln
- Children aged 3 – 5
- Children with disabilities
- Homeless children
- Families must meet income guidelines

For more information contact headstart@cfsri.org.

Healthy Families America

Healthy Families America is a national evidence-based maternal and child home visiting service. HFA pairs expectant mothers or families with newborns with a Family Support Worker, who provides free home visiting services to the family and their child until the child’s fourth birthday.
Goals

- Build and maintain partnerships in communities that engage families in home visiting, either prenatally or at birth
- Promote and strengthen positive parent-child relationships
- Promote positive growth and development in children
- Build strengths of families and their protective factors

Who is eligible?

- Pregnant women
- Families with newborns (3 months of age or less)
- Families must meet program eligibility requirements; exemptions can be provided on an individual basis to families

For more information contact Susan Dounetos at 401.752.7598 or sdounetos@cfsri.org or Michelle Hirst at 401.276.4332 or mhirst@cfsri.org.

Nurse Family Partnership

Nurse-Family Partnership is a national evidence-based maternal and child home visiting service for expectant first-time mothers and their newborns. It pairs expectant mothers with a registered nurse, who provides free, intensive home visiting services for the mother and her child until the child’s second birthday.

NFP Goals

- To improve pregnancy outcomes by helping women engage in good preventive health practices
- To improve child health and development by helping parents provide responsible and competent care
- To improve the economic self-sufficiency of families by helping parents develop a vision for their own future, plan future pregnancies, continue their education, and find work

Who is eligible?

The Nurse Family Partnership provides services to women with their first pregnancy and gestational age being less than 28 weeks. This program enrolls statewide.

For more information contact Maria Chionchio at 401.721.6410 or at mchionchio@cfsri.org.
The Rhode Island Community Food Bank manages a member agency “Food Assistance Providers” list, which allows individuals to find organizations by community served. It is recommended that you contact the agency before you visit to confirm hours of operation and find out what information you need to bring with you. Food Assistance Programs

2-1-1 Hotline

The United Way Rhode Island 2-1-1 hotline is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. They have information for thousands of programs, including a statewide listing of food assistance programs – even beyond the Food Bank’s Food Assistance List. You may reach them free, by dialing 211 on any phone or you may visit them online at www.211ri.org.
Please be sure to ask the 2-1-1 representative for referrals for any other support services you may need. They provide information about programs like housing assistance, utility assistance, public transportation, health care, childcare, SNAP and more.

The Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP):

SNAP helps individuals and families buy food. If you are working but are struggling to buy food and provide nutritious meals, SNAP may be able to help. You do not need to be participating in other Rhode Island Department of Human Services programs to receive SNAP benefits. You can be unemployed or working, preparing for work, receiving a pension or homeless.

Eligible individuals enrolled in SNAP receive benefits via a special debit card issued through the Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) program. The EBT card can be used to pay for food at supermarkets and convenience stores, as well as some farmer’s markets and food co-ops.

For eligibility requirements and an online application, contact The Rhode Island Department of Human Services’ Food Assistance Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, 1-855-MYRIDHS (1-855-697-4347).

Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC):

Children’s Friend and Service can help with WIC Enrollment.

WIC is a nutrition program that provides:

- Healthy foods such as milk, juice, cereal, cheese, eggs, infant formula, tuna, and carrots
- Nutrition education to improve family health
- Breastfeeding advice and support
- Referrals to doctors, dentists, and other community services

WIC helps:

- Pregnant women
- Breastfeeding moms
- New moms with babies under six months old
- Babies
- Children younger than five years old

For more information, or to speak to someone about eligibility for WIC, please contact one of Childrenʼs Friendʼs the location listed below or email them at WIC@cfsri.org. New applications are being accepted.

To receive WIC you must live in Rhode Island and meet income guidelines: WIC Federal Income Guidelines

Note: Fathers, grandparents and foster parents can also apply for WIC for children in their care. WIC is an equal opportunity provider.

Children’s Friend’s WIC program has been moved to the Independence Square office at 500 Prospect Street, Pawtucket, RI 02860 • 401.721.6416

Rent Relief Rhode Island:

The Emergency Rental Assistance Program can pay for rent and utilities owed back to April 1, 2020. The program also covers up to three (3) months of upcoming rent. Utilities may include electricity, water, trash, and heat. Applicants are eligible for a total of 18 months of assistance. A $50/month internet stipend is also available to applicants. There is no monthly cap on eligible rent relief. The monthly amount is determined by the rent payment agreed to in the lease. RentReliefRI assistance does not need to be reimbursed or paid back.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:

Tenant applicants must meet all of the following criteria to be considered for rent relief:

• Household income must meet certain income limits. Limits vary by location and household size. Income Limits are available online at RentReliefRI.com.

• You must have qualified for unemployment benefits or have experienced a reduction in household income, incurred significant costs, OR experienced other financial hardship due, directly, or indirectly, to COVID-19.

• Applicants must show they are at risk for becoming homeless or loss of housing. This may include submitting past-due rent and utility bills or eviction notices at application.

APPLICANTS SHOULD HAVE THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTS:

Tenants

• Documentation demonstrating that you live in Rhode Island (ex: bank statement, utility bill, driver’s license)

• Proof of income (ex: wage statements, unemployment letter, 2020 tax return)

• Signed copy of your lease agreement or documentation showing tenancy (a pattern of rent payment)

• Documentation demonstrating your rental/utility arrearage (ex: past due utility bill, eviction notice, 5-day demand letter, communication from landlord) *If you have received a notice from the court for an eviction proceeding against you, please have that documentation available.
APPLICATION AND PAYMENT PROCESS:
Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis through September 2022 via an online portal.

Property Managers/Landlords

• W9 Form

• Rent arrearage documentation (ex; ledger, past due notice)

• Proof of property ownership (ex; mortgage statement, real estate tax bill, water/sewer bill)

• Tenant contact information (ex; cell phone, email address)

Even if you do not have these documents, please call 1-855-608-8756 or reach out to our partners for help completing the application. Partner listing is available online at www.RentReliefRI.com.

Tenant Rights

Tenants have rights protected by law. Learn what they are, how to advocate for yourself, and who can help from the resources below:

• This RI Landlord Tenant Handbook lays out all of your rights and responsibilities as a tenant, all of your landlord’s rights and responsibilities to you, and a wealth of other information.

• Direct Action for Rights and Equality, DARE: DARE is prepared to assist tenants facing eviction for non-payment of rent, because of landlord retaliation, or other reasons.

Homelessness/Shelter

RI Homeless Management Coordinated Entry System: this is the central resource to connect with shelter or diversion assistance—money to help stop you from becoming homeless, or to return to housing. Their phone number is (401) 277-4316 and their email is cesteam@crossroadsri.org

The House of Hope outreach program works with people experiencing homelessness. Sara Melucci is the Program Manager for the outreach team and can be reached at 401-287-7808 or sara@thehouseofhopecdc.org. This team provides support through Street Outreach and programs like Shower to Empower.

Mortgage Assistance

Most homeowners can temporarily pause or reduce their mortgage payments if they’re struggling financially. Forbearance is when your mortgage servicer or lender allows you to pause or reduce your mortgage payments for a limited time while you build back your finances. For most loans, there will be no additional fees, penalties, or additional interest (beyond scheduled amounts) added to your account, and you do not need to submit additional documentation to qualify. You can simply tell your servicer that you have a pandemic-related financial hardship.
Who is eligible for forbearance?

You may have a right to a COVID hardship forbearance if:

- you experience financial hardship directly or indirectly due to the coronavirus pandemic, and
- you have a federally backed mortgage, which includes HUD/FHA, VA, USDA, Fannie Mae, and Freddie Mac loans.

When is the deadline for applying?

If your loan is backed by HUD/FHA, USDA, or VA, the deadline for requesting an initial forbearance is September 30th, 2021.

If your loan is backed by Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac, there is not currently a deadline for requesting an initial forbearance.

How long does forbearance last?

Your initial forbearance plan will typically last 3 to 6 months. If you need more time to recover financially, you can request an extension. For most loans, your forbearance can be extended up to 12 months. Some loans may be eligible for up to 18 months of forbearance, depending on when your initial forbearance started. Other limitations may apply.

- If your mortgage is backed by Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac: You may request up to two additional three-month extensions, for a maximum of 18 months of total forbearance.
- If your mortgage is backed by HUD/FHA, USDA, or VA: You may request up to two additional three-month extensions, for a maximum of 18 months of total forbearance.

There is a waiting list for Cumberland Manor, but applicants are encouraged to submit a complete application to the Housing Authority so that they can be placed onto the waiting list.

How Application Process Works: Cumberland Housing Authority (CHA) uses a two-step application process. Applicants must first complete this pre-application to determine a person’s preliminary eligibility.

Once the eligibility determination is made, CHA places the person’s name on a waitlist by the date and time the pre-application was received. CHA has a residency preference. If you live in Cumberland, and meet the local preference requirements, your name is placed as a preference on the waitlist.

The CHA processes its list according to unit size and local preference. The CHA units may be located on different floor levels and are accessible by elevators and stairs.

To be eligible for admission to public housing, an applicant must:

1. Be a family member as defined in CHA’s Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy;
2. Meet the HUD citizenship or immigration status requirements;
3. Have an annual income at the time of admission that does not exceed the income limits established by HUD;
4. Provide documentation of Social Security numbers for all family members;
5. Meet or exceed the Applicant Selection Criteria
6. Not have had a lease terminated by a PHA or other federally assisted program;
7. Not have any family members engaged in any criminal activity that threatens the life, health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents, and not have any family member engaged in any drug-related criminal activity.

Each year the CHA updates its Public Housing waitlist. An Annual Update will be sent out each year on January 15. You will have 15 business days to return your update form, or your name will be removed from the waitlist.
Applicants with disabilities may seek assistance with the completion of the application at CHA’s office at the above address.

CHA will conduct credit checks and criminal record checks on all applicants.

- Naloxone (also known as Narcan®) is a medicine that can stop an opioid overdose—like an overdose caused by fentanyl or heroin.
- Naloxone is safe to use and only works if a person has opioids in their body.
- If you give naloxone to someone who is overdosing, you are protected by the Rhode Island Good Samaritan Law and cannot be arrested.

Request Free Naloxone Delivered to Your Home

Click the link above to start a short interactive training in English or Spanish. The training will take less than 5 minutes. You will learn how to recognize an overdose, respond to an overdose using naloxone, and ways you can stay safer if you are using drugs. At the end of this short training, you can request free naloxone shipped to your house. You can also request a peer recovery specialist.
Getting Naloxone from a Pharmacy

In Rhode Island, you can get naloxone at your local pharmacy without a prescription from a healthcare provider. When you buy naloxone at a pharmacy, the pharmacist can show you how to use it. You can also use these online instructions or watch this video to see how to give nasal naloxone.

What is Special Education?

Special Education is specialized instruction provided for children from ages 3 through 21 who qualify according to the laws and regulations outlined by the State of Rhode Island and federal government. A student may qualify for special education services as an individual with special needs in one of twelve areas identified by the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA 2004).

These are:
- Deaf/Hard of Hearing
- Deaf-Blind
- Visually Impaired
- Speech-Language Impaired
- Specific Learning Disability
- Multiple Handicapped
- Orthopedically Impaired
- Other Health Impaired
- Mentally Retarded
- Emotionally Disturbed
- Autism
- Traumatic Brain Injury

The Special Education Process

If your child is demonstrating a pattern of serious difficulty in school and frequently exhibits learning problems, consideration of Special Education may be considered. Below is a general outline of the process:

Referral and Identification
- A referral may come from a parent, teacher, physician, or building administrator. If you suspect that your child has a disability you should contact your child’s classroom teacher, school counselor or building administrator to discuss further.

Assessment
- If your child is referred to the Evaluation Team for evaluation, the team will review all pertinent data to determine if further evaluation is needed to assist with determining if your child has a disability. If your child is determined to require further evaluations, evaluations will be completed within 60 calendar days of receiving your authorization to conduct evaluations.

Individualized Education Program (IEP)
- Upon reviewing the results of evaluations, the Evaluation Team will determine if your child is eligible as a student with a disability who requires specialized instruction from a special educator under one of the twelve eligibility categories. If your child is eligible for special education services an Individualized Education Program (IEP) will be developed by the IEP team. The IEP team consists of the parents/guardians, a school administrator, a special education teacher, the child’s general education teacher, and other special education staff as determined by the team. During the IEP, annual goals are developed to help the student progress in the general education curriculum. Parents must give approval prior to placement and services beginning.

IEP Review
- Your child’s program will be reviewed by the IEP team at least annually to determine progress in meeting established goals and to determine new goals as appropriate.
RIPIN's Special Education team provide workshops and learning opportunities on a variety of topics related to special education and transition.

- Parent Training and Information Center (PTIC): Trained RIPIN staff coach and guide families to actively participate in making informed decisions about their child's education. They support families in navigating the special education process and gaining an understanding of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).

- Transition to Adult Services: This program supports students, young adults with disabilities, and their families as they transition to adult services; and learn about the options and resources available. They empower young adults with disabilities and their families to actively participate in making informed decisions about the services they receive.

Operation Stand Down Rhode Island (OSDRI) is an independent 501(c)(3) non-profit organization focused on serving homeless and at-risk veterans. Founded in 1993 and headquartered in Johnston, OSDRI’s mission is to strengthen the veteran community by providing crucial wrap-around services.

Legal Assistance

Operation Stand Down’s Legal Assistance for Warriors (LAW) program provides extensive pro-bono representation and reduced-fee assistance to eligible Rhode Island veterans in a variety of areas.

They work with eligible veterans in initial applications for VA and Social Security Disability Benefits, misdemeanor criminal matters before the Rhode Island Veteran Treatment Court, license restoration matters at the Rhode Island Traffic Tribunal / RI DMV, Landlord Tennant, and limited Family Court cases.

Employment & Training

Operation Stand Down works with Active Duty Military Personnel, National Guard, Reservists, Veterans and Military Families on a one-on-one basis to assist with:

- Job Placement
- Training
- Job Development
- Career counseling
- Resume preparation
- Education

Housing

Located on eight campuses across Rhode Island, OSDRI has developed, owns, and operates 88 units. Each housing program offers various levels of supportive services. Housing is available for females, males and families.

Temporary Rental & Financial Assistance:
Beyond OSDRI’s housing, hundreds of additional veteran households are assisted each year in maintaining and securing housing in the community at large. Eligible veterans who are literally homeless receive assistance with security deposits, rent, moving expenses and emergency shelter. Those at risk of homelessness, may receive help with rent in arrears and utilities.

OSDRI Food Pantry
OSDRI's food pantry is located at 1010 Hartford Avenue, Johnston, RI (map). The pantry is available for use by in-need veterans during normal business hours and is stocked with non-perishables (canned fruit, vegetables, pasta, rice, etc.). Frozen poultry and meats are sometimes available as well. Veterans wanting to use the pantry must bring proof of veteran status before admittance.

Personal Hygiene Program
In addition to food, Personal Hygiene products, including soaps, body wash, deodorant, toothpaste, razors, and other items are stocked at the Food Pantry. OSDRI welcomes donations of these items as well.
